Church Executive presents its second annual Good Steward Awards issue

Our December issue provides churches a one-of-a-kind opportunity to promote your brand and applaud the most successful within your target audience. This exclusive feature can only be found inside the pages of Church Executive magazine. We'll recognize several examples of churches that have shown themselves to be "Good Stewards" of their congregations' resources. Awards are presented in various categories including energy conservation, operational efficiency, and financial management.
